“Everyone needs emotional intelligence and OPPORTUNITIES TO BE BRAVE AND KIND.”

– MARC BRACKETT, Yale Center for Emotional Intelligence

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7TH, 2015

Educators - Parents - Secondary Students - Professionals - Others

Presented by the Charles and Lynn Schusterman Family Foundation and hosted by Tulsa's Anti-Bullying Collaboration (ABC).

Our Annual Bullying Prevention Conference will feature Marc Brackett, Ph.D., from Yale Center for Emotional Intelligence. Come learn how Social and Emotional Learning (SEL) integration has led to:

- 1) Increase in academic success
- 2) Increase in the quality of the teacher/student relationship
- 3) Decrease in problem behaviors

More about SEL: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=62F9z1OgpRk>

Conference registration is FREE but limited to 300 participants including educators, parents, middle/high school students, professionals, and others.

Lunch provided by QT Kitchens and is free to registered attendees!

We are unable to meet specific dietary needs - please plan accordingly.

The ABC is made possible through the support of the Tulsa Area United Way, the Charles and Lynn Schusterman Family Foundation, and the George Kaiser Family Foundation.
